“Professional Resiliency Colloquium”  AED 195B  Summer Session 1 and Fall 2017

A fully developed online course

Description: A one credit colloquium course that explores the best practices in developing personal and professional resiliency. This course is an outgrowth of working with student veterans and first responders and has been demonstrated to increase students’ likelihood of graduating from college. It is a problems-based format, where students will work together to address case studies and work towards mutual solutions.

The first 50 students to register will have the course paid for by a generous donation from the Bert W. Martin Foundation!

To enroll have your advisor email docmmontana@gmail.com with your name and student ID number and the term you plan to enroll.
