This course will focus on introducing students to the values, traditions and development of Middle Eastern (largely Islamic and Arab) culture and civilization. This course is designed to familiarize students with achievements in art, architecture, literature and popular culture of the Middle East, to help students understand these achievements in their social and cultural contexts, and to consider the historical evolution of our knowledge and understanding of the Middle East.

Earn 3 Credits MENA or HIST

Gallagher Theater
M/W 2-2:50 PM