

TOP 5 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

MEET WITH ACADEMIC ADVISOR

1

Students should meet with their Academic Advisor at least once a semester and as often as needed for any academic questions/concerns. They can find their assigned advisor in their UAccess Student Center.

A list of all advisors can be found at:

advising.arizona.edu/academic-advisor-directory

2

GET INVOLVED

Students can cultivate a sense of community and belonging, as well as develop as learners, leaders, and professionals at the Adalberto & Ana Guerrero Student Center (GSC). Visit them in the César E. Chávez Building, Room 217!

Learn more about the GSC at: chsa.arizona.edu

When a student becomes a Wildcat, their loved ones become Wildcats too. Stay updated with Parent & Family Programs for events on campus.

Learn more about parent/family involvement at:

uafamily.arizona.edu/parents-family-association

STAY ON TOP OF FINANCES

Ask a Financial Aid Counselor about options for financial aid, scholarship renewal requirements, and the FAFSA priority deadline. Review a personalized financial aid summary and policies in UAccess Student Center. Find some quick links below:

3

Contact the Office of Scholarships & Financial Aid

financialaid.arizona.edu/contact

Review Scholarship Requirements

financialaid.arizona.edu/types-of-aid/scholarships/current-students

Bursar Office and Tuition Calculator

bursar.arizona.edu

4

USE CAMPUS RESOURCES

THINK TANK is the go-to destination for tutoring, supplemental instruction, writing services, academic coaching, workshops, and more! Visit: thinktank.arizona.edu

The Writing Skills Improvement Program is dedicated to supporting the writing process by helping students identify patterns in their writing and develop skills to achieve their writing goals. Students have one free session every other week: wsip.arizona.edu/how-register

Through a variety of programs and initiatives, Thrive Center supports students as they navigate through, excel in, and graduate from the University of Arizona. Learn more about their services at: thrive.arizona.edu

UNDERSTAND FERPA

FERPA (the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act) is a federal law governing the access to educational details and records to ensure and protect students' privacy.

Learn more about FERPA and self-advocacy at: registrar.arizona.edu/privacy-ferpa/about-ferpa

5

